MRS. EDDIE GUMM
... Former Phyllis Ferrin

Ferrin-Gumm Nuptials Recited at St. James

St. James Catholic Church was the scene of a high-noon wedding ceremony on Saturday, Aug. 19, when Miss Phyllis Ferrin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Ferrin, 17503 Faysmith, exchanged wedding vows with Eddie Gumm. Parents of the bridegroom are Mr. and Mrs. R. Perello of Redondo Beach.

The bride came to the altar on the arm of her father. She wore a floor length gown of white lace, net and satin. The neckline was accented with sequins and the fitted bodice had long pointed sleeves. A tiara secured the bridal veil and she carried a bouquet of white roses encircling white orchids.

Miss Patt Gumm was the maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Misses Nancy Steele, Cheryl Saunders, Vickie Holz and Pat Spence. Miss Gumm was in a coral sheath dress with chiffon overskirt and the bridesmaids wore identical dresses in aqua. Their bouquets were aqua and white carnations.

John Paul Russell was best man and ushers were David Gumm, Rossario Perello, Jr., Donald and Robert Gumm.

Rev. T. C. Thompson officiated at the marriage. Mrs. E. Carririo played the organ accompanying Mrs. C. Burch, soloist. A reception for the 200 guests was held at the church with Barbara Romero registering the guests.

The newlyweds spent a honeymoon in San Diego and Carmel. Their new address is 2798 Grant Ave., Redondo.

The bride was graduated from North High school and her husband is a Redondo High graduate.

Local Nurse Married To Theology Student

Ronald Kendall of South Gate and Joyce Stott, who was employed on the nursing staff at Torrance Memorial Hospital, were united in marriage at the home of Pastor Glenn Goffar on Sunday, Sept. 3 at 4 o'clock. Both attended the Seventh-Day Adventist Church at 1610 Acacia Ave., in Torrance.

The bride's attendant was her sister, Mrs. Sharon Spencer, who is also on the Torrance Memorial Hospital nursing staff. The best man was T. T. Spear of San Diego, brother-in-law of Mr. Kendall.

The bride was lovely in a white chiffon organza princess style gown with shoulder length veil. She wore a corsage of two large pastel gold orchids. Mrs. Spencer wore a delicate pink chiffon gown with a matching hat.

A huge basket of white gladioli decorated each side of the fireplace and the mantel was done in cedar bough and white stock floral arrangements. The cake was cut by Mrs. T. T. Spear of San Diego and punch was poured by Mrs. John Dillon of Torrance.

The newlyweds will honeymoon at coastal points en route to Walla Walla, Washington, where Ronald will attend Walla Walla College to receive a Bachelor of Theology degree.

To Texas
Mr. and Mrs. Robert W. Wiseman of Torrance recently dined at the Pen & Quill Restaurant in Manhattan Beach prior to their departure for Fort Worth, Tex., from the Los Angeles International Airport.
